Coordination Office for Refugees

If you are interested in studying at the University of Basel, then you need to contact the Coordination Office for Refugees. In our initial, non-binding consultation, we will clarify whether you fulfill the admission requirements. If studying is not an option, we will help you to find the source of information you need.

We offer support in the following areas :

- Finances, budgeting
- Day-to-day questions
- Accommodation
- Correspondence with various official bodies
- Counselling
- Networking / triage with internal /external offices

Have you been forced to flee your homeland? Are you interested in studying at the University of Basel or already matriculated at the University of Basel?

Please feel free to contact us and arrange a non-binding consultation. The consultation is free of charge.

You will find us on the 2nd floor of the Kollegienhaus
